MESSAGE TO OUR COMMUNITIES

Dear Neighbors, Partners, and Teammates,

At HII, our commitment to building a brighter future where everyone can thrive drives us to volunteer in our communities, support causes that make a difference, and guide the leaders of tomorrow. In this report, you'll see the remarkable impact of our volunteers. They champion HII's values as they build and strengthen the communities where we live and work.

In 2024, HII contributed more than $5.9 million in charitable giving to education programs, veteran and military support groups, youth programs and much more. Our volunteers lend a hand where it is needed most.

Some examples include:

NEWPORT NEWS SHIPBUILDING joined forces with the American Heart Association to donate 13 CPR training kits for use in Newport News Public Schools. Those kits were presented on World Restart a Heart Day.

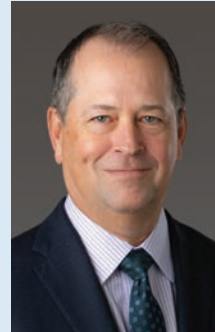

INGALLS SHIPBUILDING hosted 80 scouts and nearly 40 troop leaders attended the first multi-badging day. Shipbuilders volunteered their time, shared wisdom and entertained the curious scouts, helping them earn 150 badges throughout the event.

MISSION TECHNOLOGIES employees volunteered to collect and sort non-perishable food items during a weekend-long marathon food drive in support of the Hampton Roads community in Virginia Beach, Virginia.

HII'S CORPORATE employees at VASCIC collected 163 pounds of food and $115 in monetary donations during a summer food drive. That's the equivalent of 481 meals for families on the Virginia Peninsula. HII also kept up our long-standing relationships with the United Way, American Red Cross and American Heart Association, among others.

The nearly 2,000 volunteers in this report understand that our combined engagement makes a difference to our communities. The sum of our efforts has the power to clean our waterways, feed the hungry and build homes for those in need. I am proud knowing that each person in this report is on our team.

Thank you to everyone for your selfless efforts over the past year. If you are not listed in this Report to the Community, I hope you will consider volunteering in 2025.

“While our shipbuilders are passionate about the work they do for the U.S. Navy, they are equally dedicated to positively impacting the communities in which we live and work. Newport News Shipbuilding’s legacy of “Always Good Ships” goes hand-in-hand with our shipbuilders’ unwavering support for the community. They are community advocates in so many ways — including mentoring and coaching children; giving generously during food and school supply drives; supporting organizations that fight poverty, heart disease and cancer; and donating blood during our on-site blood drives. At NNS, we take our responsibility as a corporate citizen very seriously, and every shipbuilder shares this responsibility to push for positive change. As a new member of the NNS community, I look forward to opportunities to roll up my sleeves and work with fellow shipbuilders to make an impact across the Hampton Roads region and beyond.”

“At Mission Technologies, we are driven by a commitment to our customers — and our communities. Our employees tackle some of the toughest challenges in the world with innovation and determination. This same spirit fuels our annual Global Day of Caring and other charitable efforts that support communities in more than 40 states and all around the world. I’m incredibly proud of this team’s dedication to helping others and proving that ‘HII Cares.’”

SEVERO OLIGO JR.

Severo Oligo Jr. supports Mission Technologies' work at the Joint Intelligence Operations Center-Korea. In 2024, he also stepped up to organize a street clean-up in Pyeongtaek, South Korea, as part of Mission Technologies' annual Global Day of Caring.

"People around us were actually shocked that we were cleaning up their community," Oligo said. "We were given a thumbs up from people."

He enjoyed the experience so much, he said after the event: "I want to explore doing community service each month."

He organized a holiday event at a local orphanage in December and is planning future events to support local farmers and animal shelters.

He said the volunteer projects have not only improved the community, but also created a sense of belonging and connection among the volunteers and the people they help.

He encourages all HII employees to volunteer in their communities.

"If they have time," he said, "it is a great way to build leadership skills, make meaningful contributions to the community and give employees a sense of pride and ownership over their work."

"The work our shipbuilders do every day is second to none, and I believe their efforts outside the shipyard to keep our communities strong and vibrant are just as impressive. At the heart of shipbuilding is a deep commitment to engagement and respect — the same values that drive us to give back to our communities. Whether building ships or serving others, our shipbuilders are making a difference we can all be proud of."

2024 VOLUNTEERS IN OUR COMMUNITY

JANICE BOONE

Volunteering is something engineer Janice Boone feel deeply connected to, allowing her to give back to the community and help those in need. "The opportunity to make a tangible difference in someone's life is incredibly rewarding, and it drives me to seek out new volunteer opportunities whenever I can," Janice said. "Whether I'm lending a hand to someone facing a difficult challenge or being part of a larger effort to improve the community, volunteering allows me to feel like I'm part of something greater than myself."

Janice volunteers for numerous nonprofits in the Hampton Roads area. She is passionate about addressing food insecurity, volunteering at the Virginia Peninsula Foodbank, THRIVE Peninsula and most recently Bethel Temple Church's Food Truck.

As a team leader with Serve the City Peninsula (STC), Janice has been actively involved with their programs including organizing the warehouse at The Heart of Giving, assembling beds with Sleep in Heavenly Peace, rolling diapers with The Greater Hampton Roads Diaper Bank, assembling breakfast kits for PORT, creating flower arrangements for The Simple Sunflower and playing bingo with senior citizens at Spratley House in Newport News. Janice also utilizes her skills as an engineer to help local students discover and develop their potential. For the past six years, she has been volunteering with the SEEKnns program, TryEngineering Together, where Janice e-mentors elementary school students promoting STEM careers. In 2024 Janice served as a judge for the Youth Volunteer Corps Hampton Roads Constructure Contest, the Technical Student Association and the York County School Science Fair.

Whether it's out in the community or within the company, Janice steps up to help. She's involved in the Veterans Employee Resource Group actively supporting initiatives that honor and uplift our military veterans. In 2024, she participated in cleaning veterans' headstones, birthday celebrations for the military branches, organizing a Christmas card-making event at the Mariner's Museum and keeping veterans informed about local events. Janice also joins NNS volunteer opportunities including the Relay for Life, NNS 5K, NNS Earth Day Clean-Up, MS Walk, United Way Day of Caring, MLK Day of Service and Salvation Army Toys for Tots.

"I am continually amazed by the generosity and dedication of our shipbuilders. They give 100% to their craft and commitments to their work and the mission while also caring for one another and their communities in meaningful ways. Their commitment strengthens our communities, and I'm proud to see and hear about the thousands who continue their dedication to excellence even beyond the shipyard. We ask our shipbuilders what organizations and causes matter most to them, and we are proud to support and stand alongside them in their efforts to make the world a better place."

"When we come together to support one another, we create stronger, more resilient communities. Volunteering isn't just about giving back; it's about building meaningful connections, fostering a sense of belonging, and reinforcing the values that bring us together. I believe volunteerism is a catalyst for a thriving HII culture, reminding us that the greatest impact happens when we show up for each other."

"The dedication of our shipbuilders at NNS goes beyond building good ships — they build stronger communities through their volunteer efforts. Their commitment to service exemplifies the heart of our workforce, making a lasting impact both in the shipyard and beyond."
